You will arrive at the Munich airport, about 30 km from Landshut. From there, take the airport bus to the Freising railway station (the busses leave every 20 min., the trip takes about 15 min.) From Freising, take a train (every hour / the trip takes 25 min.) to Landshut Central Station (= "Hauptbahnhof") and from there the bus nr. 3, direction "Auloh", till the bus stop "Fachhochschule" (every 20 min. / about 20 min.).

or take the airport bus to Landshut "Hauptbahnhof" (every 2 hrs./ 60 min. – not on week-ends!) and from there the bus nr. 3 (see above).

...by train

You have direct connections from Munich, Regensburg and Passau to Landshut; bus from "Hauptbahnhof" see above

...by car

Coming from Munich, take the Autobahn (motorway) A9 (direction "Nürnberg"); at the Autobahnkreuz (motorway intersection) "Neufahrn" take the A92 (direction "Deggendorf") until the exit "Moosburg Nord". Follow the Bundesstraße (major road) B11 until you arrive in Landshut (about 10 km); at the first crossroads you go straight on, take the next turnoff to the right (signed "Innenstadtring Ost" "Fachhochschule"), at the first traffic lights after the tunnel turn right, and then drive straight on (about 4 km). After leaving Landshut and passing through Schönbrunn you will see the Fachhochschule on your left.

Coming from the east (A9 Deggendorf -> München), take the exit "Landshut Nord". Follow the major road (direction "Altötting, B299") till the 2nd traffic light after the 2nd bridge ("Große Isar"). From there, follow the indication "Fachhochschule/Auloh": turn to the left, then about 2 km straight on.
